

Entry Form • Administrator of the Year Award

Show your administrator you appreciate his or her support! Nominate your administrator for this prestigious award.

Postmark Deadline: Feb. 20, 2009

■ The purpose of this award is to recognize administrators who have shown strong interest in and support for scholastic journalism. This award will be presented at the MIPA spring conference on April 28, 2009.

■ Nominations must be received by the MIPA office postmarked by Feb. 20, 2009.

■ Selection is based on a portfolio, which should include letters and other documentation that illustrate support for the journalism program, adviser and students. Portfolios should be specific and should address the following areas:

Awareness of current issues in journalism

Journalism's place in the curriculum

Understanding of the role of secondary administrators in journalism curriculum

Allowing students press freedom

Financing

Encouragement of academic and professional growth

Personal support and encouragement

■ Each member school may nominate one person for this award. This form should be the first page of the portfolio. The administrator's resume should be included as the second page.

■ Please include a black and white glossy or color photo (any size) of the administrator.
