

Scholarship Application Form

for the 2009 Publication Advisers Workshop

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE:

THE ARGUS-PRESS SCHOLARSHIP

The Argus-Press is located in Owosso and is Michigan's oldest single-family owned daily newspaper, having been in the Campbell family since 1895. In appreciation of MIPA's role in high school journalism, two scholarships ($300) will be awarded to two newspaper adviser whose publication is a member of MIPA. Selection will be based on the statement and the recommendation letter. This will be a cash award—made payable to the adviser.

THE MSU SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM SCHOLARSHIPS

Two ($400) scholarships will be offered to teachers with five or fewer years of advising who wish to take journalism classes to earn their journalism endorsement on their teaching certificate or are part of the MA program. Selection will be based on the essay and the recommendation letter. Scholarship money will be placed in the student's account. If the student has already paid, a check will be issued from the account.

SCHOLARSHIP POSTMARK DEADLINE: JUNE 17, 2009

To apply for one of the three scholarships, please do the following:

1. Include this form as the cover sheet;
2. Write a 300-word personal statement that addresses your teaching/advising situation and why you are taking the course;
3. Include a one-page letter of recommendation from your principal or department head.

We will notify winners via e-mail by July 7.
